

THE OPEN UNIVERSITY OF TANZANIA

CONCEPT NOTE & RESEARCH PROPOSAL WRITING TRAINING

DAR ES SALAAM – 17th – 18th August 2019

Overview

A concept note is a summary of a proposal containing a brief description of the idea of the project and the objectives to be pursued. This workshop is suitable for those interested in pursuing Masters and PhD in any university, the workshop is also suitable for academic supervisors and project fund seekers from any organization.

The workshop further intends to those who cannot prepare a concept note or research proposal and discuss how individuals can best make use of their academic researches.

Target Audience:

The workshop is designed for masters and PhD continuing Students, Prospective PhD and & Masters Students, Masters and PhD Supervisors, researchers and anybody interested in joining research field.

Course Outcomes:

Upon completing this workshop, the delegates should be able to:

- ✓ Understand and gain confidence to apply the acquired skills and knowledge on how to prepare a concept note and research proposal.
- ✓ To be able to select a research topic and Differentiate between Masters Research & PhD Research.
- ✓ Develop an understanding of literature review and citation.
- ✓ Improve the quality and content of the research and project proposal for better decision making.
- ✓ To be able to identify a good supervisors.

For academic supervisors

- ✓ Understand the role of a supervisor
- ✓ Working closely with Masters and PhD students
- ✓ Understand Masters and PhD supervision guidelines

COURSE FEE

150,000TSH (FOR WEEKENDS - it covers certificate, Health break, lunch and training materials)

ALL PAYMENT SHOULD BE DONE TO:

National Bank of Commerce; The Open University of Tanzania

TSH: AC No: 011103033713

NO CONTROLL NUMBER IS NEEDED

TRAINING FACILITATORS

Prof: Deus Ngaruko AND Dr. Proches Ngatuni

FOR MORE DETAILS PLEASE CONTACT:

+255753000102, +255762002919

out.trainings@out.ac.tz