INTERNAL MEMO

TO: ALL OUT STAFF
FROM: DRPI
DATE: 11th SEPTEMBER, 2023

RE: TRAINING ON WRITING WINNING PROJECT PROPOSALS

Introduction

The Directorate of Research, Publication, and Innovation (DRPI) is organizing a training on how to write winning project proposals. This training is aimed at capacitating OUT Staff on polishing their skills and techniques essential in writing winning project proposals. This training is crucial for maximizing funding opportunities, enhancing research productivity, improving competitiveness, fostering professional growth, and advancing Institutional goals. The training is expected to take place in early October 2023. The trained team will be used to train other academic staff internally based on the specialization.

Enrolment Procedure

DRPI is inviting all OUT staff who have submitted proposals for funding in the past two years, regardless of whether the submission was successful or not to enroll by submitting the names of the participants, the title of the submitted proposal and the funder, to Prof. Emmanuel Patroba Mhache through the following email; emmanuel.mhache@out.ac.tz copy ngororamhache@gmail.com by 18th September 2023. Only a few chances are available so you are all encouraged to take advantage of this opportunity.

Sincerely,

Dr. Harrieth Mtae
Director of Research Publication and Innovation
